Northwest Center Teens - Northwest Center is preparing to launch a new full-day summer program for teenagers with disabilities on June 27. Serving youth ages 13-21, the center will be open from 7 AM to 6 PM Monday through Friday throughout the summer. Northwest Center Teens is designed to meet the need of working parents of teens with developmental conditions that require social, emotional and physical supports throughout the day. The staff will provide a safe and engaging facility along with plenty of opportunities to get out into the community to practice independent living and social skills. They are collaborating with community partners such as the YMCA, Boys and Girls Club, Seattle Parks and others to facilitate a variety of inclusive summer adventures and activities for participants. The program will offer monthly, weekly, full-time and part-time tuition rates. No one will be turned away based on finances. Scholarships are available to cover any portion of tuition that will best serve each family's needs and allow participants to pay what they can. They are close to finalizing a deal for space near downtown Seattle and enrollment will begin very soon.
